

I would like to receive my TV programming from Denver. I live in Colorado, not New Mexico (where my coverage comes from now) and as such would like to receive the programming from my state. Much of the programming I don't receive contains news on my state government and state capital and news that impacts my life.